

In winter the days grow shorter and the nights longer. The glow of holiday lights coming from windows warms the winter night.

December Nights, December Lights

CD 21:15

Words and Music by Emily Crocker

Verse Em B Em Am

1. De - cem - ber days are dark and cold and the
2. De - cem - ber nights are crisp and clear and the
3. De - cem - ber times are hap - py times and they

Em B Em B

snow is grow - ing deep. The trees are bare in the stars are i - cy cold. From far and near all the bring a mes - sage true. Good will to all and...

Em Am B Em

frost - y air and the world is fast a - sleep. There are sounds you hear are a prom - ise that's fore - told. There are peace on earth and a hap - py New Year, too. And...

Em B Em Am Em

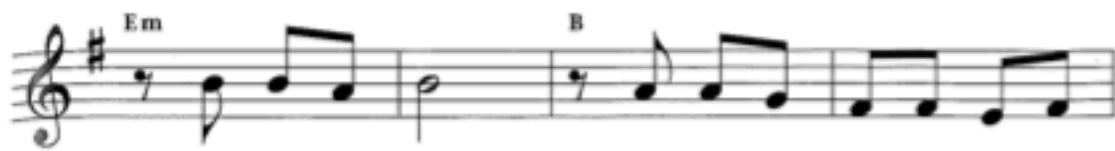

can - dles in the win - dow, there are lights up - on the mer - ry voi - ces sing - ing, there is mus - ic in the when the snow has gone a - way and the sun shines warm and tree, all shin - ing in the dark - ness, air. All the tow - er bells are ring - ing, there is bright, we'll dream of mer - ry days gone by and a tell their tale to me.

laugh - ter ev - 'ry - where. } De - cem - ber nights, cold De - cem - ber night. }

De - cem - ber lights, tell us of days so ve - ry long a - go. De - cem - ber nights,

De - cem - ber lights, tell us the se - crets we must know.

Create a piece of artwork depicting the winter scene described in "December Nights, December Lights."

